The role of the Incident Response Department is to ensure the rapid and effective response of appropriate resources, as needed, to suppress and extinguish wildfires in Texas. Rapid initial response to wildland fires is essential to suppress wildfires during high fire danger conditions, limit losses and provide for the safety of emergency responders and citizens. In addition, TAMFS is often requested to respond to all-hazard incidents that affect the state.

Regional Fire Coordinators

REvised: APRIL 5TH, 2023